Voice.

The word "prepare" is Load up with dough be - in the air, You hear it ev'ry where, Prepare! prepare!

fore you go, Each nickel you can spare, Prepare! prepare!

pare!  pare!  pare!  While there's preparing to be done And Just be a spy and wink your eye At ev'ry one is on the run I'm going to do my

And shout out "who goes share?" But not for war, I'm peaceful goodness knows

I'll just prepare to wear my summer clothes.
For every thing is fair in love and war.
Chorus.

Are you prepared for the summer with someone to love? Have you dug out your trenches in the sand? Have you got a recruiter a sweet 'shoot-the-shooter.' If not why don't you enlist a sweet volunteer hey mister! Summer is com-ing, the war will be on When the ar-my of sweet-hearts fall in line And they'll fight like the dick-ens To cap-ture all the chick-ens So pre-pare for the
1. sum-mer time Are you pre-time.

Oh! Promise me that you'll come back to Alabam'

Words by Edgar Leslie
Music by Geo. W. Meyer

Chorus:
Oh, promise me that you'll come back to Alabam', honey lamb.

Come back where the cornfields and the cotton crawl, honey lamb.

Don't let prosperity keep you away from me.

All I want from you is a kiss or two, I don't want h-x-a-n-y, Oh.
