It's my impression, you know each lesson, There's nothing You hug the tall ones, you hug the small ones, I think your left you can discover, I did till you came, as in arms will fit all sizes. I started burning, and brought a new game, that put me in the kindergarten my books of learning, the day I met your lips, your hands, your school. You were the smartest, old loving artist, eyes. In lover's college, you lead in knowledge, I thought you understood each lover's rule.

I've never had a teacher half so wise.

CHORUS. Slow

I never knew what love could do, till your love met with mine.
I never knew what hands could do, till our hands met one time, I never knew what eyes could do, 'till my eyes met with thine, I never knew what lips could do, 'till your lips met with mine, I mine.
