I Wouldn't Steal The Sweetheart Of A Soldier Boy

SONG

By the camp-fire gleaming,
On the field of battle

soldier boy is dreaming, little girl is blue;
where the cannons rattle 'mid the victory.
Some one else is telling tales of love compelling, But her heart is true.

While the drums are beating, his heart keeps repeating, "Does she think of "Tell me who's your sweet-heart," he sighs, "pretty maid?"

See that you respect him, you who stay at home, "Just a soldier boy" she murmurs low.

Just remember that he fights for you. Stranger gently Treat him like a answer: "Don't you be afraid,"

Tells her as he turns to go: brother, leave his girl alone, Be a man and tell her, too:

1 Wouldn't Steal &c. 4
CHORUS

I wouldn't steal the sweet-heart of a soldier boy,
While he is fighting far away.

They say that all is fair in love and war,
But I don't see it just that way.

I Wouldn't Steal & c. 4
Lento

I seem to hear him saying "Love be true. Wait till I

a tempo
come back home to you." I wouldn't steal the

a tempo
sweet-heart of a soldier boy. And break a soldier's heart in two. I wouldn't two. D.S.

1 Wouldn't Steal &c. - 4
