Moderato

VOICE

Look me o-ver, Look me o-ver, Ain’t I look-ing great? All tannit up and
In the ev-ning, In the ev-ning, When the clock strikes nine, You don’t don your ev-ry thing, Been a-way from town since Spring, I just wan-dered back to na-ture, ev-nging clothes, But you start your night’s re-pose, You don’t need a sleep-ing pow-der,

Liv’d down on the farm; Did I get my mon-ey’s worth? (Soo) ‘Tis the great-est thing on earth.
One, two, three, yadde out; You get up next morn at five Mighty glad to be a-live.

CHORUS

Early in the morning Down on the farm Where you can hear the rooster crow, And you can watch the flowers grow, (So pret-ty.) Ramble round the meadow, Sweet with pearly dew, — And all the little birds say "Good Morning" to you. Your very old-est clothes are plen-ty good enough to wear; Seven years behind the styles but you don't care. Throw away your ties and col-lars, Gee! it's worth a million dol-lars,

Walk four miles to carry water, Just to please the farm-er's daugh-ter,
Where's my breakfast? That's the question, Never heard of indi-ges-tion,

Early in the morn-ing,
Down on the farm

VERSE
Whose pretty baby are you now?
I'm glad you're sorry.
How's every little thing in Dixie?
You remind me of dear old Ireland.
Whose pretty baby are you now?
She's Dixie all the time.
On the shores of Samoa.
Mammy's little coal black rose.
Down Honolulu way.
Just a word of sympathy.
In old Brazil.
Welcome honey to your old plantation home.
On Lake Champlain.
The whole world loves a lover.
And they called it Dixieland.
Pretty baby,
My dreamy China lady,
Come back to Arizona.
You'll find a little bit of Ireland everywhere.
Kangaroo hop song.
You'll always be the same sweet baby.
They didn't believe me.
In the valley of the Nile.
Underneath the stars.
Loading up the Mandy Lee memories.
It's Tulip time in Holland.
When I was a dreamer.
Alabama Jubilee.
