Moderato.

City people
How-dy do there,

pity people,
how are you there,
That's Virginia way, when they shake hands with you.

Way down Virginia
Their hearts go

pity people,
how are you there,
That's Virginia way, when they shake hands with you.

Way down Virginia
Their hearts go

City people
How-dy do there,

pity people,
how are you there,
That's Virginia way, when they shake hands with you.

Way down Virginia
Their hearts go

City people
How-dy do there,

pity people,
how are you there,
That's Virginia way, when they shake hands with you.

Way down Virginia
Their hearts go

Chorus.

I'm gonna make hay while the sun shines in Virginia. The old folks need a lot of sunshine now, I'm gonna be a farmer in Virginia. I'll plant a kiss on mother's wrinkled brow. (How I love her) I'm gonna raise the mortgage from the homestead. I'll weed out all their sorrows and their tears. I'm gonna make hay while the sun shines in Virginia. I'm gonna brighten up their few remaining years.
