Music divine and the glittering lights,
Whispers of love heath the shady palms;

Beautiful, wonderful night of nights;
Fondly I clasped you with in my arms;

This old world seem'd Heav'n above,
There in the maze of the dance;

One little minute of love,
Life was a whirl of romance.
CHORUS. \( p, 2\text{ndtime} f \)

Some night, some waltz, Some wonder-ful girl.

It was a dream of de-light; I shall nev-er for-get when our fond lips met. It was some kiss, some blis-s, Two hearts in a whirl; Life's on-ly hope just to live it a-gain. Some night, some waltz, some girl, girl

HARMONIZED CHORUS.

SOPRANO.

Some night, some waltz, Some wonderful girl.

ALTO.

Some night, some waltz, Some wonderful, wonderful girl.

TENOR.

Some night, some waltz, Some wonderful, wonderful girl.

BASS.

Some night, some waltz, Some wonderful, wonderful girl.

It was a dream of delight; I shall never forget when our fond lips met. It was some kiss, some bliss, Two hearts in a whirl;

Some kiss, some bliss, Two hearts in a whirl; two loving hearts.

Life's only hope just to live it again. Some night, some waltz, some girl.
Last Night was the End of the World

Words by ANDREW B. STERLING.
Music by HARRY VON TILZER.

Acknowledged to be the most beautiful Drawing Room Ballad since
"Love Me and the World is Mine."

These two great writers are the composers of a host of huge American successes, but this, their very latest production, will outvalue them all.

A successful high-class Ballad must possess many points to distinguish it above all others. Strength of lyric, originality of conception, and melodies and rhythmic refrain, are among the important points, and

"Last Night was the End of the World"
possesses these to the aome of perfection.

REFRAIN.

Last night, the stars were all aglow,
Last night, I loved, I loved you so,
My heart was glad, for you were near,
I held your hand and called you dear, my dear,
And then, the stars grew dim and cold,
The moon grew pale, my heart grew old,
My dream is o'er, to live no more,
Last night was the end of the world.
