Moderato

She was a She had the simple country maiden in a simple country town

Not so far from Old Broadway And she had dearest Aunt-je living just a dozen miles away Where she went to spend weekends But did she never seen the City till her mother took her down Then she only let her spend a day

So depend with her Aunt-je yes her Aunt-je too was gay They'd rundown and meet some Broadway friends Caba-

mure-ly she said, "Sure-ly mother, I don't care to stay resting not crocheting, was what Babette liked the best If New York's as wick-ed as they say?"
Home Sweet Home was just a place to rest.
CHORUS

Now Sweet Babette she always did the Minuet, Just like her dear old grand-ma used to do. And Sweet Babette she was her mother's darling pet. She glided by with drooping eye a modest, shy Babette.

Faster

But when the boys came around her feet were hardly ever on the ground. She'd shake her shoulders to a raggy air—Tango Waltz and do the Grizzly Bear. Roll her eyes and then she'd give a cheer. And kicked the chandelier. But! When her mother drew near she always did the Minuet.

Chorus.

Close to my heart, I'll always want you.

My lil' sugar baby, close to my heart, in dreams I'll hasten you,

My hus'ey, suck-le lad-y, close to my heart.

for ever- or de-ter, will never part,

And all thru'life's sweetest song.
