I'm thinking of a little town, where birds are singing,
Kan do-ny, Bells are ring-ing on the hill, waiting for you, I see you in your sim-ple gown, the memories bring-ing, Round my heart that old love thrill,

if you're ever lone-ly, How my heart would swell with pride,
When I can lin-ger wonder, in dreams I go back lone-ly, It seems I'm with you still.

near you, to call, and I can hear you, Then I'll be sat-is-fied.
CHORUS

By the mill, where they made sweet cider, I made sweet love to you, Mill wheel was turning, as I sat there yearning For one kiss, the sweetest I knew. On the hill, from the old town chapel Those evening bells would chime, I'll always remember that golden November, Sweet cider time, when you were mine! By the mill, mine!

SONGS THAT GRIP THE HEART

"Ireland Must Be Heaven For My Mother Came From There"

Ireland, so famed in song and story, has a new-crown for her brow. "Ireland must be Heaven for My Mother Came From There" is the new and wonderful song—the hit of years—which all lovers of heart-songs must sing. It's a song of three wonderful themes: Angel, Mother and Ireland. It's a ballad with a melody so captivating and lovely you can't let it alone. The whole country is singing "Ireland Must Be Heaven."

"The Sweetest Melody of All"

Want a song that gets to your heart strings and stays there? THIS is that song. What is "the sweetest melody of all?" Rather than "opera grand or big brass band," isn't it the girlish chatter or boyish babble of little darling lisping "Mama" or "Papa?" Right? Then you will love this song. It's easy to sing. Sing it once you will want to sing it a thousand times. It's a favorite with Emma Carius and other footlight stars. Get your copy today.
