Valse moderato

Some folks think love is nothing, They've never We little know the sadness, Of love that's known its joys, They think it's just a cast away, We little know its pastime, Like a baby plays with toys. A sorrows, Growing stronger ev'ry day. So

Moderato.

Andantino.

Once a bird who loved a rose, Chirped despondently,
With the Spring-time's sunny garb, Came the love-sick bird,

"Oh! My love, From above, Your feeling blush I see,
To the tree anxiously, But still no welcome heard,

But I cannot linger here. Winter's blasts are near.
For the rose had sighed in vain. Cried till winter's snows

Like ly flow-er. From your bow-er. I must fly I fear. Oh, dear!
Half in pi-ty Froze the pret-ty. Brok-en heart-ed rose he chose.

REFRAIN. (With expression.)

Good-bye Rose, the Autumn leaves are falling.

Good-bye Rose.
Winter blows her trumpets from the sky,

When the snows shall melt at Spring-time's calling,

We will meet again, some day so goodbye Rose.

Good Bye Rose 3.
