THE HALLELUJAH DANCE

Words By
BARTLEY COSTELLO

Music By
WILLIAM H. PENN

The Music House of Laemmle
Publishers
417 West 42nd St.
Chicago, New York.
THE HALELUJAH DANCE.

Words by
BARTLEY COSTELLO.

Music by
WILLIAM H. PENN.

Moderato.

Listen to the music
Pucker up your lips for

Till Ready

playing,  Guess that tune is hard to beat,

kissing,  Let me hold your hand in mine,
Sets your heart a-jumping, swaying,
Look at all the bliss we're missing,
Keep step to that tune dancing,
Feel;

Just can't keep myself from dancing,
Gaze into my eyes with love light,

Come and join me, honey my sweet,
Honey don't you think it just fine,
Feel like flying,

Hallelujah,

hear me sighing, Come and give your lolly-pop a treat,
Hallelujah, It's the greatest dance along the line.

Hallelujah Dance-4
CHORUS.

Did you ever do that Hallelujah, "did you?"

That's the candy dance all right, Squeezin', teasin', my oh my, it's pleas-in', Kiss-in', hug-gin', hug with all your might,

Hallelujah Dance - 4
Mm, Mm, get your feet a-go-ing, Lov-ey Dov-ey, Come on people, here's your chance, Oh, ba-by, may-be you ain't the gra-vey, When you do that Hal-le-lu-jah Dance. D.S.

Hallelujah Dance - 4
The Grandest Song
since "LOVE ME AND THE WORLD IS MINE"

JUST LET ME PROVE MY LOVE TO YOU.

Copyright MCMX by The Music House of Lee & White, Chicago, Ill International Copyright Secured.

THE BREYER PRINTING CO., Chicago