Tempo di Valse.

She was for teasing, He was for squeezing,
They went out rowing, Wind started blowing,

"Kiss me," he's sighing, "Stop it," she's crying, Some one is looking Boat took a tumble, No time to grumble, "Oh, help me dear," she

see;
cried;

"No," said he, "Yes," said she.
Wil-lie sighed, then replied.

If you can't see them, There is a reason, You must be Hold on the boat, dear, She answered, "No, dear," I've got a blind as a bat, He's there with the answer, As bad sinking spell, My eyes feel so funny, Can't quick as you can, sir, A corking good answer at that:
see the boat honey," Then grabbed him and started to yell:

CHORUS.

I have something in my eye, and it's you, you.
you. That's the reason too, I can see no one but you, Dearie, if it falls into my heart then I don't know what I'll do. I have something in my eye, and it's you, you, you. you. D.C.

Jungle Moon
Words by C. P. McDonald
Music by Percy Wenrich

A new Song with a charming story set to a melody proclaimed by all who hear it, to be the best Mr. Wenrich has ever written. The words tell of “Love in the Jungle” and the Dreamy Music helps to picture this very beautifully.
