Moderato con moto

I've noticed that the thing that drives a man to drink is thirst,
And
The friends I meet all meet me half-way, always treat me swell,
For

after that, of all temptations, friendship is the worst;
To
when I buy, they won't say bye-bye, till they buy as well;

keep good spirits up, I put good spirits down, you see, And when I drink to absent friends I always show fair play, I all my friends tho' far away, in spirit are with me. I know they'd say "Have one more? so, I have it any way."

THE ONE HIT OF THE NEW SEASON

Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself, But Leave His Wife Alone.

Words by
WILL A. HEELAN &
E. S. S. HUNTINGTON.

Music by SEYMOUR FURTH.

CHORUS. Slow.

Love thy neighbor as thyself, but leave his wife alone, Or

Love thy neighbor as thyself, but leave his wife alone, Or

Love thy neighbor as thyself, but leave his wife alone, Or else that neighbor might get wise and try to win your own, So else that neighbor might get wise and try to win your own, With else that neighbor might get wise and try to win your own, I try to lead the simple life, but lead it with your own dear wife, fifty men I'd trust my wife, but with just one, "not on your life," knew she wasn't safe down there that's why I brought her in the air,
