day, just to sit there and play. Say, that baby grand, you must hear again, or I'll die. Why when he plays I'm under stand, Miss Hannah only hired, 'Cause his in a daze, He starts my heart a-goin' Till the playing she admired; But one day she couldn't love is overflowin' And I run up to my pay, They came to take this grand a-way, Up-hon; And give him kisses by the ton, Please on her knees she pleaded with the moving man this way... don't demand that baby grand, or else my joys are done......

CHORUS

Please don't take my baby grand, Don't you dare to lay a hand On that box of joy, that music toy, For if it's gone I'll lose my honey boy; Oh! movin' man, please hear my plea, Just leave that instrument with me; Take the chairs from the flat, dog and the cat,

Coat off the rack, clothes off my back, But, movin' man, please leave my baby grand... grand...
