Take Me Back To Birdseye Center

Words and Music by Nelson H. Bell.

Published by Nelson H. Bell.
Oshawa, Ont

As featured by Al Perrin with
"Arnie Marks" Company
Take Me Back To Birdseye Center

A RURAL FOX-TROT SONG

By, NELSON H. BELL

Tempo di (birdseye center)

Not fast

John James Henry Perkins Brown, Got fed up with Miss Elvira Susan Jones, One of Birdseye Pig skin Peters fat and sleek Learned to swim in

With rustic rhythm his home town, And so all his cares to drown, To the ele-cents tones, Beauty prize she proudly owns And displays it Jones'es creek, Went on diet one whole week Training for the Copyrights Canada 1927 by, Nelson H. Bell. hied.  John James Hen-ry got dead broke One sad morn-ing well.  To the ci-ty Sus-an hied  For the beau-ty swim.  To the mar-a-thon he sped Birds-eye Cen-ter he a-woke. Ev-ry thing he own’d in soak, John James he loud-ly cried.

prize she tried. In the con-test she was guy-ed, It made poor Sus-an yell.
lost its head. Pig-skim swam till near-ly dead, And then he yelled with vim.

Chorus (with woe)

Oh take me back to Birds-eye Cen-ter. I want to be in Birds-eye Cen-ter I miss the sha-dy trees, (I do) I miss the TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO

Your Music Dealer Has It, Or Write the Publisher

"MAY BE YOU NEVER CARED"
For Me At All
FOX TROT BALLAD
Words and Music by NELSON H. BELL

Chorus

May be you're sorry that you ever met me ____________________________ that you made me care May be you're glad that you can now for - got me Leaving my life so empty and so bare ————

Published by Nelson H. Bell.
Oshawa, Ont