"We're All Old Boys Today"
THE HOME COMING

SOUVENIR COPY
10c

LONDON OLD BOYS' ASS'N

MUSIC BY
CHARLES E. WHEELER

WORDS FOR THE SONG BY JOHN M. GUNN

Also Arranged by the Composer
For Military Bands and Four Part Chorus

The Official March and Song written for the LONDON OLD BOYS' REUNION
JULY 30th to AUGUST 6th, 1938

Entire Proceeds from sale of copies during above Reunion donated to the London Old Boys' Association by owner of the copyright.

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT
TRIO. (Vocal Chorus in Unison).

Let us sing a song of London. And its people of renown.

Give the boys and girls a hand. Join our voices with the band. As we shout "RAH RAH" for the old home town. So it’s park your baggage.

Here you’ll stay, — welcome as the flow’rs of May. And it’s up and down the street, with a smile for all you meet. We are all "Old Boys" today.

D. C. and end
at Fine.

ff Interlude.

D. S. to Trio.