VICTORIOUS!
THEY'RE COMING BACK

WORDS AND MUSIC BY PRIVATE HARRY ROSE
(FIRST CANADIAN CONTINGENT)

By the same composer:
“Salvation Lassie of Mine”
“His Name’s on the Roll of Honor” and others.

The composer on his return from France was inspired by the welcome given to his comrades and himself to write this song.

Victorious They're Coming Back

Words and Music by Harry Rose
1st Can. Contingent

1. Hear the bugle call, Sound to one and all, Sure it's music
2. Hear the people cheer, Down upon the pier, Ev'rybody's in the air, Thro' the country wide, Hearts are full'd with pride feeling glad, What a welcome roar, From those on the shore

For it's o-ver o-ver there—Ring the Lib-er-ty bell None a-mong them feel-ing sad—Let us shout out a-cross

—once more As they dit in the days of yore.
the foam To our brave boys re-turn ing home.

CHORUS

They're coming back—They're coming back from the North, South,

East and West, They've brought us fame—Yes, brought us fame,
And they've prov'd they've stood the test, Our Canadian boys sure they're heroes thro' and thro' They've up-held the honor of the old Red White and Blue. In dear old France they prov'd what they could do. So victorious they're coming back. They're coming back.
