As she sang to the bright Silver Moon
(Swing high, swing-a-low)

Swing high, swing-a-low, Silver Moon, as you go To the place where my true love is waiting for me
Where the sweet bells are ringing
And nightingales singing
Say that I send my best love by thee -
To the East, to the West, to the one I love best Bear this message of love on your way to the sea.
Where he is - ne'er disclose
For no one else knows
But the bright silver moon and me.

There's a girl I adore and each day love her more,
'Tis the same sweet old story you've Oh I thot it was fate till one night at the gate When home-ward I went as the heard before. She's a regular tease if her hand I should squeeze She'll pretend

Wad my fair lady love as she gazed up above
For the jauntily

tend to be terribly sore
When I stroll round at eight and hang moon that was shining no more Then I found without doubt when the o-ver the gate And ask her oh, who does she love Then her glad laughter moon was-it out Or nev-er a star in the sky

That was me all the
