Dedicated to the Motherland

CANADA'S SONS
(WHO CAN'T)
MAN YOUR GUNS

Words and Music by

BURT DAYTON

Sung with great success by Canada's well known baritone
Roy McIntosh

Encore Publishing Co.
18 King St. W.
Hamilton.
Canada's Sons Who Can't Man Your Guns

Words & Music by Burt Dayton.

The call to arms, now you have
We will stand by our mother's sound ed Mother land a cross the sea

And the flag that stands for right side by side, with our Empire's sons Canada's place shall will not lean upon you Without joining in your

Copyright Canada 1915 by Burt Dayton, British Copyright Secured.
U.S. Copyright 1915, Burt Dayton. be Our best of blood we freely give you In fight And not a cub of Britain's Lion Will thousands ten times ten There's no need to ask, We've hide behind her paw When duty's to be done, And taken the task, And you'll find we've willing men. When a honors to be won, We are by your side, once more. When a foreign foe man threatens Our Empire owns one flag, We'll stand by you, steadfast and true, not a son behind will drag

CHORUS

And our brothers who are fighting Are content and bear in mind, That leaving

Canada's sons who can't man your guns, Will take care of the dear ones left behind.

When a care of the dear ones left be hind.

Canada's Sons 3.