Cheer up! brave boys, the turn is here, We have them going never fear, The We'll soon be back to kith and kin, No more to hear the battle's din, And Kaiser and his Allies now are slowing. So keep it up and hit him hard; For so well 'carry on,' all dangers scorn ing! Our sweet-hearts in our arms again, With he is playing his last card, And day by day our victory is growing!

peace on earth goodwill to men, We'll eat our eggs at home on Easter morning!
CHORUS

A rum tum tum, a rum tum tum, We've got the Kaiser on the run; And so we'll give old Willie lots of warning! The way that things are going now, Sure everybody's knowing That we will eat our eggs at home on Easter morning!

(Shout)

May-be we will and may-be we won't! What do we care if we do or we don't? A morning
