SHADOWLAND

By Gordon V. Thompson

I know of a land where all is right, No sorrows or sighs:
To-gather we roam the Shad-ow paths, That run by for there. There's a land that's near the home of light. No worry or care or care, I still in that land a

VOICE

Our Jack has gone away to be a soldier,
To fight for Britain's
Just to get an introduction to the Kaiser, Our Jack has gone away.

name; Now he's battling for the liberty and freedom, That made old England's way; Just to make the German King a little wiser, Without so much to fame! But at last when all his fighting days are over, He'll say; Just to say to him, "Your moustache grows too high, sir! Should be our Jack the same? Then we'll slap him on the back; Give a point the other way! Our Jack will play his part And he's welcome to our Jack Who upheld his country's honor as a soldier! always in our heart; He upheld his country's honor as a soldier.

CHORUS

When Jack comes back There'll be a mighty welcome for our sol - dier boy! And he will be the idol of his country For he fought for liberty. "Hur-rah! Hur-rah! He's home once more! Hur-rah! Hur-rah! the war is o'er!" When Jack comes back, There'll be a mighty welcome for our soldier boy! When boy!
