Now we must part, Heart of my Just one short line, Sweet-heart of heart. I can hear the bugle sounding with a call so clear! Till I re-mine: I am battling for my country far from home to night. Though foes as-turn My heart will yearn For the girl I leave behind me In the home-land dear: sail. Right must prevail: So keep knitting still and smiling Till we win our fight!

When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine:" And we grind up the Kaiser's last line...

When the war is done and the victory won I'll come back to the girl that I call mine.

When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine:" We will bind up two hearts that entwine!

Wedding bells will be ringing; Home Sweet Home will be singing. When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine!"
