Rock-a-bye Lullabye Mammy

Words by GRANT CLARKE

Chorus

Music by WALTER DONALDSON

How I sigh for my Lull-a-bye Mam-my,

She knows why I'm so lone-some and blue;

It seems in all my dreams I'm

I strolled in the cool of the morning dear, When all was freshness and The shadows of night now are falling dear, The end of day now has sweet, A beautiful day faintly dawning come, A scene in the past is recalling paradise there at my feet, I lay by the still sleeping hope for a world just begun, We've come to the end and the wa-ters, dear, O'er which not a rip-ple was blown, part-ing, dear, The depth of our love dulls the pain;

Then I'll pre-dreamed and the hope dawned up-on me That your love was for me a-lone.
tend we are back at the start-ing And love you all o-ver a-gain.

Chorus

So I built a world just for you dear, The moun-tains I took for your throne And the wa-ters I checked just to get the ef-color I put in the skies dear, I found in your two eyes of blue — And the sun up above shed a soft light of love In the world that I built for you. So I built for you.
