THE DEAR OLD DAYS.
Song and Chorus.

Words by JOHN BLAIR.

Music by H. P. DANKS.

Cantabile.

I'm call'd to view the days,
Which long ago are past;
And seem again on scenes to gaze,
Too soon.

In eager ness I search for now,
What pleas'd my fancy spread;
But youthful heads are forced to bow,
To be.

Sail away in state ly pride,
Their white wings grace ful then;
And from the port great steam ers stride,
And to be.
free from care to last.
older wisem
ought that was is dead;

care,
place,

I watch from mother's side the
Yet I have kept with mis-
For even now in thought I

That wash the sandy shore, As Some things which are of worth, Nor The joys I knew so well, And passing feel the old, old graves, Are new, are new to me once more.

shall I part with relics rare, Of cheerful happy days on earth.
in my heart to day I trace, My boyhoods immortal.
