(From Lucrezia Borgia.)

DONIZETTI.

1. It is better to laugh than be sighing. When we think how life's moments are flying; For each sorrow Fate ever is bringing, There's a pleasure in store for us springing. Tho' our joys, like to waves in the sunshine, Gleam awhile, then be lost to the sight; Yet, for

In the world, we some beings discover,
Far too rigid for friend or for lover;
Souls unblest, and for ever repining,
Tho' good fortune around them be shining,
It were well, if such hearts we could banish,
To some planet far distant from ours;
They're the dark spots we trace on this earth's favor'd space,
They are weeds that choke up the fair flowers.

Popular Music at Popular Prices!

HITCHCOCK'S DIME AND HALF-DIME SERIES
OF SELECT MUSIC FOR THE MILLION.

THE TEN CENT or DIME SERIES.

In presenting to a generous and appreciative Public this new Series, we feel that we are more fully meeting the popular demand for select music at a low price.

To properly compensate Authors,—and thereby to stimulate native talent,—is a cardinal feature of our undertaking; while to place upon the Piano rich gems, requiring more space than the Half-Dime Series affords, induces the inauguration of the Dime Series, which it is believed will accomplish both of these aims.

The abundant success which has crowned the advent of the Half-Dime Series, removes any hesitancy we may have felt in placing this new Series before the Public. Both will be published weekly, and the Numbers multiplied rapidly as possible.

Parents can rest assured that, in future as in the past, our publications will be scrupulously free from anything that has an immoral or hurtful tendency, so that those who subscribe for the numbers as issued will find nothing to offend even the most fastidious taste. The following are now ready:
