Arr. by Jules Brazil

Moderato

Ev’ry night as I lay dreaming
Scotchman loves the tistle
Stars shine whilst the moon is gleaming
rish love their Shamrock
A vision rare is a garden fair
France the land of Fleur-De-Lis

Dreaming of the days gone by England loves the charming rose
Gleaming o’er the western sky
And the soil on which it grows
A loving mother with silvery hair
Her flow’r of love and fidelity

see her in the arm chair And she's waiting for me there maple leaf of Canada Is the emblem dear to me.

CHORUS
Take me back, take me back. Take me back to dear old Canada. Where the wild Canadian rose And the four leaf clover grows. Take me back, take me back. Where the crimson creeper climbs. And the morning glories twine round the vine Take me back to Canada. Take me da.

"WELCOME"

Welcome, Welcome, that's a Mother's prayer.
Welcome, Welcome, you hear it everywhere.
Many a long and weary day
Mother has passed since you went away,
But she's waiting with a welcome for you there.

"Welcome is a lifting waltz refrain, and it expresses the hope of millions.

"The Hearts of the World"

Love Canada

The hearts of the world love Canada,
They're admired the whole world over,
And those hearts love the men of Canada
For bravery in this war;
And the hearts of the world praise Canada,
With her prairies and stately trees,
Yes, the hearts of the world thank Canada,
From pole to southern seas.

"The Hearts of the World" is the sweetest story ever written. Its melody is stately and possesses an irresistible swing.

"FLYING"

Flying, flying, 'way up in the air,
Always a smile and never a care,
Thousands of miles from ev'rywhere,
Spooling, honey mooning, what a joyous flight!
No more trouble and no more care
When you're flying 'way up in the air.

"FLYING" is a haunting waltz melody which fascinates with every additional hearing.

"TAKE ME BACK"

TO DEAR OLD CANADA

Take me back, take me back,
Take me back to dear old Canada,
Where the wild Canadian rose
And the four-leaf clover grows.
Take me back, take me back
Where the crimson creeper climbs,
And the morning glories twine 'round the vine.
Take me back to Canada.

This song needs no introduction. It is now one of the biggest hits on the market.

"HOME AGAIN"

Home again! Home again!
That's the song we love to sing;
Gather round, gather round,
Come, let your voices ring;
We'll sing the old-time melodies,
The songs that bring back memories;
Home again! Home again!
That's the song of the world to me.

"HOME AGAIN"—featured by The Shropnel Dodgers and other returned heroes, is the best home song ever written. The sale of this song has broken all Canadian records.
