Moderato

Sailing sailing over the bounding foam,
Every lad a sat round each night singing the songs we know, Songs their dads and board the boat is sailing for home sweet home, A Scot head man sang a Scotch song, For the mothers sang in days of long ago, A lad from France his voice did raise, As he sake of Auld Lang Syne, Shure the dear little Sham-rock an Irishman said is a favorite song of

Refrain Not fast

Home again, Home again, That's the song we love to sing, Gather round, Gather round, Come let your voices ring, We'll sing the old time melodies, The songs that bring back memories, Home again, Home again That's the song of the world to me. Home again.
