LONESOME LITTLE ME

Words By
Leo J. Curley
Music By
James M. Fulton

Writers of “Tipperary”—“Tattle Tale”
“The Girl Across The Way”
“Laddie Buck,” etc.

Published by Waterbury, Conn.
Words by Leo J. Curley.

Music by James M. Fulton.

Moderato.

Piano.

Lonesome Little Me.

Seems like all the girls are getting married,
Lots of girls ain't half so nice as I am,
Makes me just as blue as I can be,
Funny how they ever get a beau,

Wish that I could get a fellow some how,
It's funny no one wants to marry Dad just kids me something awful lately,
He kind of smiles and says I must be

Copyright 1910 by Fulton Brothers Pub. Co. me, We have a love-ly so-fa
slow, He says to get some salt
and I might catch one,
and
dad's a cinch but still the boys won't call,
then he laughed still I could almost cry, next time I get a fellow on our plenty, Some nights she thought she'd have to hire a hall, so-fa, I'll snuggle up real close and then I'll sigh,
I'm awful
I'm awful

Chorus.

lon-some, lon-some might as well be liv-ing in the moon,
No one calls a-round at night to co-zy up and hold me tight, I'll be an old maid soon,

Gee how hap-py I could be

Kind of cuddled up-on some-one's knee,
Like to put the fel-lows wise

Think I'll have to ad-ver-tise, Lonesome lit-tle me. I'm aw-ful me.

Lonesome Little Me. 3
THE GIRL ACROSS THE WAY

Words by LEO A. CURLEY.
	Music by JAMES M. FULTON.

Copyright 1904 by James M. Fulton.

Laddie Buck.

Words by LEO A. CURLEY.

Music by JAMES M. FULTON.

Copyright 1904 by Wm. A. Warner & Sons.

Copyright Renewed.