Oh You Dream

Words by Wm. JEROME

Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ

Tempo di Valse

When a man falls in love with a sweet little dove, He will whisper sweet things in her ear, For his whole future lies in her dreamy blue eyes. She's his tootsie, his darling, his dear. As they

Now a fellow will walk seven miles just to talk To the dear little girl of his heart. He will stand in the rain, just a sweet smile to gain, And he'll sigh when it's time to depart. All the

Extra Choruses

3rd Chorus
Oh you dream, you beautiful, beautiful dream,
You're just like a rose peeping over the wall,
Since we met I can't see Julia Marlowe at all,
Oh you dream, dream, dream, of the girlies in town you're the cream
Eva Tanguay may stare, let her rave, I don't care.
You're a dream, dream, dream.

4th Chorus
Oh you dream, you beautiful, beautiful dream,
In the garden of girls, you're the one girl for me.
And I hope Anna Held will remain in Paree:
Oh you dream, dream, dream, of the girlies in town you're the cream.
From the Jack forty ways, you out-shine Nora Bayes.
You're a dream, dream, dream.
