WON'T YOU BE MY GIRL.

Words by W. A. LANG.

Music by MAY GREENE.

Slowly.

Oh! won't you be my girl
Just a glance from you sets me a-whirl
Now dear there's something, Gee! but I can't tell seems to hold me in a spell, There's class to you I know.

You're just the one that I would like to show the way to Love-land, say the word and we will go Tell me, won't you be my girl. Oh won't you girl.

Way down South where the cotton am a growing,
Good old days can never be forgotten,
Way down in the Mississippi flowing;

Land of cane and cotton,
That's the place I long to be going,
All around the folks am a squat-lin'

Down in Dix-ie Land.
Seems I hear those ban-jo's ring-ing.
Way off I can hear the dark-ies sing-ing;
dus-ky charm-er, Way down in the State of Al-a-bam-a;
Oh what joy those mem-ries am a bring-ing From Dix-ie Land.
All I hope is noth-ing comes to harm her In Dix-ie Land.

Strike up a Song That The whole Crowd knows.

CHORUS.

Strike up a song that the whole crowd knows. One where we all join in Songs of to-day no such story can tell, As the old oak-en bucket that hung in the well I was see-ing Nel- lie home I was see-ing Nel- lie home Now won't you strike up a song And you can't go wrong For we'll all join in
