The Wreck Of The Good Ship "Love."

Lyric by

ARTHUR J. LAMB.

Music by

S. R. HENRY.

Moderato.

Down by the sea two sweet-hearts, Whisper of love's delight,
When in its golden glory, Fair dawned the moon that night,

Gazing upon a vessel stranded, Wrecked on the beach last night!
Fond lovers heard the sailor's story, Told in the pale moonlight.

"Once 'twas a noble craft he tells her, But Long years ago I had a sweetheart, But Copr. MCMX by Jos. W. Stern & Co.

British Copyright Secured.
English Theatre and Music Hall rights strictly reserved.
Depositado conforme a la ley de Republica Mexicana, en el año MCMX por Jos. W. Stern y Cia., Propietarios Nueva York y Mexico.
now all its work is through" Just then a sail—or old, Said all my fond hopes were vain,— Thro' quar-rels and thro' strife, I to the youth "Be—hold! The warn—ing that wreck tells you!"

lost my dar—ling wife," Then sad—ly he sighed a—gain:

Chorus.

"On the good ship "Love" you will sail a—way, With the one who is fond of you; And the good ship "Love" will brave all storms, As long as you both are true. So keep the sun-shine in your hearts, Tho' skies grow dark a bove, Let your hearts con-stant be, And you will nev-er see The wreck of the good ship "Love." "Love."